SaaS

Software-as-a-Service (SaaS)

Providers give you a piece of software/application, and take care of updating, maintaining and troubleshooting the application.

As end user, you simply use the software using the Internet.

Business model of SaaS: business-to-business (B2B), business-to-clients (B2C) that cover numerous retail end users